

The Stewart Auditorium

Saturday June 3rd

Sunday June 4th

09:30 am	Alison Bird Earthquakes of Coastal BC: A whole lot of shakin' goin' on	John Cassidy Earthquakes in British Columbia: Rock and Roll on Canada's West Coast
10:30 am	Jane Eert Scientists at Sea – Life aboard a research vessel	Peter Chandler The Ever-Changing Ocean
11:30 am	Stéphane Gauthier How did a DFO scientist end up on Robinson Crusoe Island?	Gwil Roberts Shipwrecks of Canada
12:30 pm	Sophie Johannessen Local and global change in our coastal waters	Cathryn Murray Hitchhikers on marine debris from the Great Japan Tsunami
1:30 pm	John Cassidy Earthquakes in British Columbia: Rock and Roll on Canada's West Coast	Howard Freeland Observing Climate Change in the Oceans
2:30 pm	Gwil Roberts Shipwrecks of Canada	Kelin Wang Earthquakes in BC: Past, present and future of the “big one”
3:30 pm	Tetjana Ross Can gliders save whales?	Denny Sinnot Tsunamis 101

The Milne Room

Saturday June 3rd

Sunday June 4th

10 am	Peter Chandler The Ever-Changing Ocean	Howard Freeland Observing Climate Change in the Oceans
11 am	Denny Sinnot Tsunamis 101	Tetjana Ross Can gliders save whales?
12 pm	Cathryn Murray Hitchhikers on marine debris from the Great Japan Tsunami	Malaika Ulmi Junior scientist: Geology for Kids
1 pm	Jane Eert Scientists at Sea – Life aboard a research vessel	Vaughn Barrie Active Faults off BC's Coast
2 pm	Tom James Sea-level change and coastal impacts across Canada	Stéphane Gauthier How did a DFO scientist end up on Robinson Crusoe Island?
3 pm	Scott Dallimore Permafrost and climate change in the western Canadian Arctic	Sophie Johannessen Local and global change in our coastal waters